

Mission Moment - March 22, 2020

Coronavirus Update

We are continually monitoring all state department statements and warnings to determine upcoming mission trips as well as communicating with our partners on the ground.

We have currently canceled all of our Spring Break mission trips, including... South Asia, Kansas City, Columbus. We have also canceled our April trip to Central Asia.

Our next trip that we will be making a decision on is Vietnam. We are supposed to go there the middle of May. As of March 15, Vietnam has closed their borders and have not given an end date. We will continue to look at this and try to make a decision on this trip by the first of April.

We have other trips coming up in June and July. We will be able to wait a while longer to make a decision on these... Tanzania, South Asia, Brazil, Wyoming
