

Mission Moment - November 11, 2018

Orphan Sunday

Please play the provided video on your Roku Player.

Today is a day that evangelical churches all over the world have set aside to bring attention to adoption, foster care, and orphan care.

Our video this morning features two of the best people: Jeff & Zue Woodward. Zue is originally from Peru and ended up serving on staff at Orphanage Emmanuel in Honduras. Jeff went on a mission trip to the orphanage and met Zue, and the two eventually got married. They are now trying to adopt 2 siblings from the orphanage.

As most of you know, international adoptions are extremely expensive, but there is a HUGE need. We are excited to get the opportunity to support the Woodwards as they adopt. If you would like to financially help them, you can give to GABC and designate those funds to to Woodward adoption.

Also, this morning as you head to the worship service, be sure and stop by to see our booths from different organizations that our church partners with as we try to do our part in adoption, foster care, and orphan care. These booths will also be available after the worship service.
