

New Beginnings Church

PASTOR VILATH SAYSOMBATH

Mission Moment - July 14, 2019
New Beginnings Church

Please play the video provided on your Roku device.

New Beginnings Church is a part of our Multiply Network. Vilath Saysombath (many people call him "V") is the church planter and pastor. He launched the church in our building about 7 years ago. He then moved his congregation to a house he owns right next door to Trinity Baptist Church.

As many of you know, we have since acquired Trinity Baptist Church, and we have allowed New Beginnings Church to meet in their educational space.

Pastor V and New Beginnings Church have a passion to see the north side of Fort Smith reached with the gospel, particularly the children. Although the majority of members are Laotian, a number of different ethnicities attend the church.

Our support of New Beginnings Church includes allowing them to use our building to worship, administration support by keeping up with their finances and giving them accountability, and prayer support.

Prayer

Take a moment this morning in your class time and specifically pray for New Beginnings Church and Pastor V. Pray that they would be a light on the north side of Fort Smith. Pray that their passion to reach children with the gospel would be fruitful.

Do Something

Are you interested in helping New Beginnings Church and Pastor V by going there as a missionary? Email our Mission Pastor, Scott Ward, at scott@grandfamily.net for more details.